

Empowering breastfeeding: science and support

- Human milk therapy: unexpected uses
- CHINS and LATCHES – Two memory aides for breastfeeding
- Protecting the lives of babies: the challenging world of infant and young child feeding in emergencies
- Supporting the ending of breastfeeding: working with parents in the weaning process
- Minding the gap. What do we know of the choices mothers make regarding medication use and breastfeeding?
- Microbiota and lactation, ethics and truth of their applications
- Pathways to progress: expanding access to the lactation profession
- Optimising positioning and latch in babies with tongue ties and strategies for improving maternal pain perception

And more!

www.iLactation.com

📅 Online: March 5 - June 5, 2025

🕒 PRE-RECORDED

📍 At home, at work, on vacation

💰 Discount rates available for students, seniors and groups of 6+

